Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.

The majority of this collection's contents focus on the work of several nineteenth century missionaries from the Stift Wilten monastery in Austria. These missionaries; Adelbert Inama, Maximilian Gätner, Franz X. Sailer, and Matthaus Sailer, traveled to Wisconsin from Austria as missionaries to the German speaking Catholic population of the state. They were members of the Premonstratensian Order, an order of canon regulars following the rule of St. Augustine, founded in 1120 by St. Norbert.

General Note

For more information on Stift Wilten and the Premonstratens in Europe see:

Both of these books were included with the collection but have since been removed to the reference section of the Archives.
