Historical Note

The origins of St. John's Cathedral High School date back to 1843 when it was founded as a school for boys. Due to its location in the middle of the city and the lack of nearby residents, the Cathedral never had a large population. At the time of its closing in June of 1976, students from 12 different parishes were enrolled.

Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.

This collection consist of the "Cathedral Tower" newspaper published by St. John Cathedral High School from 1934-1976 with a few gaps. Also included are yearbooks (1961-1975) and prom cards (1962-1977).

Volume List This is a list volume and folder names within the collection. The list is alphabetical. "B" is an abbreviation for box. Many of the volumes are too large to be boxed. This list will help the researcher narrow down exactly what folder they want to look at.
